

rochester
FRINGE
FESTIVAL

PROUDLY PRESENTED BY

Thursday, September 19, 8 P.M.
Arild Remmereit, Conductor

REMEMBERING FREDERICK DOUGLASS

Kilbourn Hall-Eastman School of Music

Arild Remmereit conducts the

Rochester Chamber Orchestra

“Remembering Frederick Douglass.”

This event will honor the life and legacy of Frederick Douglass, with music, art, acting, dance and the spoken word.

The program will feature music by William Grant Still, with Soprano Leslie Fagan, Thomas Paul as Narrator, and participation by Rochester artists and community leaders, two of whom are David Shakes and Thomas Warfield.

PROGRAM

William Grant Still: Citadel

William Grant Still: Golden Days from Costaso

William Grant Still: Mother and Child

William Grant Still: Phantom Chapel

Adolphus Hailstork: Sonata Da Chiesa

Beth Denisch: Fire Mountain Intermezzo

Tickets $15 at Eastman Theatre Box Office, or call 877-368-2207.
tickets also available at Wegmans “That’s T.H.E. TICKET” Locations or at <http://www.rochesterfringe.com>

